Vernon:

Reference our conversation. I don't believe a reply is necessary unless protocol demands same. I have been in regular contact with the DIA/Plans Office and officer responsible for the development of the program. I am also in telephone contact with the Defense Intelligence School. They are aware of the fact that we began to build our roster of nominees long before we received the formal invitation to participate. We have agreed on ground rules. We anticipate receiving all nominations by COB 21 April 1967 and [REDACTED], CIA Faculty Advisor to the DIS will hand carry the roster to the Commandant of the school.

2 to 3:

Yes. We haven't been replying formally to such letters. Instead, we keep both the Defense Intelligence School and a member of Gen. Glass' staff completely informed of our plans re HELPFUL. So a formal note would be superfluous.
